THE SUPREME COURT

Docket No:

Petitioner, LENORE A. LAURO

vs.

Respondent, MASSACHUSETTS

05 cv 11808 NMG
 MAGISTRATE JUDGE Soroka

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Petitioner pro se, pursuant to Rule 39 of this Supreme Court, timely moves for leave to proceed in forma pauperis to appeal a Massachusetts Supreme Court denial of further appellate review, rescript dated June 9, 2005, of the Appeal's Court affirmation of judgments in the Orleans District Court. An application for reconsideration was denied in the Supreme Judicial Court on July 27, 2005.

Leave to proceed in forma pauperis had been granted in the Orleans District Court for a first appeal and counsel was appointed. The determination of indigency was based on the criteria established by the Federal Legal Services Corporation 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2996f (2) (A)&(B); and Section 625 of the Economic Opportunity Act 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2971 (d): whose income, after taxes, is 125 percent, or less, of the current poverty threshold annually.

In support of this Motion to Proceed on Appeal in Forma Pauperis, and in compliance with 28 U.S.C. Section 1746, is an attached Notarized Affidavit, in the form prescribed by the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, Form 4.

Wherefore, Petitioner prays that leave to proceed in forma pauperis be granted.

FORGERY BY TRI-STATE COURT REPORTING SERVICE

STATEMENT PAGES FROM RAYMOND F. CATUOGNO, REGISTERED PROFESSIONAL COURT REPORTER WHO ALLEGEDLY TRANSCRIBED THE APPELLANT'S TRIAL COURT PROCEEDINGS, AND "HIS SIGNATURE."

Four of the pages (22, 81, 152, 250) bear the date 5/29/03. These signatures are all the same: same capital R, same dramatically looped O, same extremely rounded letters. All four have the same right slash to separate the date numbers. The line-spacing between the hand-written date and the transcriber's signature drops two spaces between the typed date and typed name Raymond F. Catuogno.

One page (20) bears the date 1-20-04. This signature is remarkably dissimilar from the other three, and came from the reporting company after this Court had vacated the case and ordered the transcripts cured; samples above, before.

Note the capital R slant, how the loop on the lower case "d" in Raymond leans to the left; the Capital C taps the head of the lower case "a" with a continuous flow. This is obviously a different person signing and certifying the accuracy of the Appellant's transcripts. Note the dashes separating the date numbers, not the consistent use of front slashed seen above. The line spacing between the written and signed name and date, is single spaced, not double as seen above. This suggests someone scanned the Certificate of Accuracy form for the purpose of forgery.
